Worried about missed rent payments or eviction? Help is available

During the coronavirus pandemic, millions of renters have struggled to make their monthly payments. If you're having trouble paying your rent, utilities, or other housing-related costs, rental assistance may be available to you.

The U.S. Treasury Department has made billions of dollars available to state, local, and tribal government agencies to provide emergency rental assistance to qualifying households.

Find financial assistance for rent

The Emergency Rental Assistance program was created to help renters cover their housing-related costs and stay in stable housing during the pandemic. The rental aid is distributed through your state and local governments.

Programs that provide help with rent work in different ways, depending on how each state, local, or tribal government establishes its program. You may be able to apply for rental assistance yourself, or you may need to work with your landlord to submit the application.

Find where to apply

To find the state or local agency where you can apply for rental assistance, visit cfpb.gov/govrent. If you can't find a program in your area, call 2-1-1 or your local housing authority for assistance.

To qualify, you must have experienced financial hardship during the COVID-19 pandemic, meet local income requirements, and be behind on your rent. Your eligibility depends on your local program, so it is a good idea to check out your options if you are concerned about your rental debts.

Emergency rental assistance can help you cover back rent that came due during the COVID-19 pandemic. Depending on local rules and availability, you may get help with future rent payments, up to three months at a time. Local programs may also cover utilities, home energy, and other costs, including electricity, gas, fuel, oil, water, sewer, and trash removal. Rental assistance may also cover reasonable late fees, Internet service to your home, and moving expenses and other rental-related fees – such as security deposits, application fees, or screening fees.

Energy Assistance Program-Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for the Energy Assistance Program your household must meet the minimum requirements below:

- Household must meet citizenship criteria; and
- The household must live in Nevada; and
- The household must be at least partly responsible for home heating or cooling costs by paying a utility company, fuel supplier, or landlord directly; and
- The household's total monthly gross income may not exceed 150 percent of the federal Poverty Guidelines as outlined below:

FY 2026 Program Year (July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2026)
Household Size	Maximum Monthly Income
1	$1,956.25
2	$2,643.75
3	$3,331.25
4	$4,018.75
5	$4,706.25
6	$5,393.75
7	$6,081.25
8	$6,768.75
Add:	$687.50 for each additional person

Note: A household is defined as one or more persons, related or not, who are living together and sharing a primary heating or electric source.

SUPPORTING A LOVED ONE DEALING WITH MENTAL AND/OR SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS

STARTING THE CONVERSATION

When a family member is drinking too much, using drugs, or struggling with a mental disorder, your support can be key to getting them the treatment they need. Starting the conversation is the first step to getting help.

How You Can Help

- 1 IDENTIFY AN APPROPRIATE TIME AND PLACE. Consider a private setting with limited distractions, such as at home or on a walk.
- 2 EXPRESS CONCERNS AND BE DIRECT. Ask how they are feeling and describe the reasons for your concern.
- 3 ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR FEELINGS AND LISTEN. Listen openly, actively, and without judgement.
- 4 OFFER TO HELP. Provide reassurance that mental and/or substance use disorders are treatable. Help them locate and connect to treatment services.
- 5 BE PATIENT. Recognize that helping your loved one doesn't happen overnight. Continue reaching out with offers to listen and help.

What to Say

"I've been worried about you. Can we talk?
If not, who are you comfortable talking to?"

"I see you're going through something.
How can I best support you?"

"I care about you and am here to listen. Do you want to talk about what's been going on?"

"I've noticed you haven't seemed like yourself lately. How can I help?"
